

NEED-BASED 'EEO' BURSARIES FOR UNPAID INTERNSHIPS AND RESEARCH OPPORTUNITIES

INFORMATION SHEET FOR UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

Enriched Educational Opportunities (EEOs) are high quality mobility or work experience opportunities that take place outside of the classroom; they foster self-def

The University has provided the Scholarships & Student Aid Office with special funding for an EEO Bursary Program to help students with the additional costs of these extra opportunities. Bursaries are non-repayable forms of financial assistance based on demonstrated financial need.

Unpaid Internships or Research Experiences may be eligible for EEO Bursaries!

- Your faculty will determine which opportunities shall be eligible for this bursary program. These may include unpaid (or insufficiently paid to cover cost outlay) internships and research opportunities,

